What is CMS

CMS - 'A content management system' (engine) â€" a basis for the site written by PHP-programmers, with which you can manage the site (add content, change menu items, etc.) without HTML and CSS knowledge.

However, in order to make a website using a CMS, you will need the services of a developer, a designer, and a layout designer. As well as some investment.

What type of CMS are

There are various content management systems: for online stores, for blogs, for forums, etc.

CMS examples

Popular CMS examples: Joomla, WordPress (for blogs), PhpBB (for forums).

CMS are paid and free